Workshop Information-March 22, 2007
(Registration Deadline-March 12, 2007)

- Workshop: Demystifying Digitization with NC ECHO – Cost: $15.00
Emily Gore, NC ECHO, State Library of North Carolina
Amy Rudersdorf, Special Collections Research Center, NCSU Libraries

Are you thinking about starting a digitization project or writing a grant for the potential funding of a digitization project? This 3-hour workshop is designed to help you do just that. The instructors will focus on the selection and project planning processes. Participants will discuss points to consider when selecting items from their collections for digitization and how to estimate costs associated with digitization including staffing, time, equipment, and outsourcing. No prior knowledge of digitization is required, but experienced participants are also welcome.

Reception Information: This year's reception is being hosted at the Textile Heritage Museum in the Historic Village of Glencoe, NC. The Textile Heritage Museum is located in the Company Store and Office Building in the Glencoe Mill Village. The building was purchased for the museum in February 2004 and is an ongoing restoration project as well as a museum highlighting the textile history of Alamance County. During the reception guests will be treated to a driving tour of the restored village on the museum trolley. For more information on the museum and village check out the website: <http://www.textileheritagemuseum.org/>

There is no charge for the reception if you register for Friday's meeting. If you would like to bring a guest to the reception or to register separately for the reception, the cost is $5 per person.

Directions and Parking:

Elon University:

Take Interstate 85/40 to Exit 140 (University Drive). From southbound 85/40, exit right and turn right. From northbound 85/40, exit right and turn left. At the first stoplight (shopping center entrance), turn right onto St. Mark's Church Road. Follow this road for 2.6 miles. Note that the road's name changes to Williamson Ave. after you cross S. Church Street. You will cross railroad tracks as you enter the campus area. Turn right at the stoplight on Haggard Avenue. Turn left at the stoplight on N. O'Kelly Ave. Take the first left into the Visitors Parking Lot at Moseley Center.

Museum:

From Elon: From the Moseley Center/Belk Library/Visitor's parking lot, turn right onto O'Kelly Ave. At the stop light, turn left onto Haggard Ave. Continue down Haggard Ave. until you reach the intersection of Haggard Ave. and University Drive/100. At the light at this intersection, turn right. Continue until you see Flora Ave. and turn left. Continue until you see Burch Bridge Road and turn left. Continue until you see Greenwood Dr. and turn right. Then turn right onto Glencoe Street or River Road (both roads will take you to the village).

From I-85/40: Take Exit 143 off I-85/40. Go approximately 4 miles north of Burlington on Highway 62 North. Cross the Haw River and turn left onto Glencoe Street (formerly River Road).
