

C. David Jackson Memorial Student Scholarship Application

The Society of North Carolina Archivists (SNCA) will offer up to two scholarships of $500 each to students wishing to attend the 2024 SNCA Annual Conference (April 18-19). This award is intended to encourage student involvement and allow recipients to pursue professional development opportunities. A one-year SNCA membership is also included with the scholarship.

Purpose: This scholarship is intended to promote continuing archival education and professional alliances among archivists in North Carolina. In addition to using the scholarship funds to support attendance at the annual meeting, recipients are encouraged to use scholarship funds to register for workshops and other professional development opportunities that would provide supplemental education to existing coursework and work experiences.

Eligibility: Applicants must be students enrolled in an archival studies, public history, or library science program in North Carolina. Previous SNCA scholarship recipients may not make further applications.

Application: Submit this form and a current resume/CV to the Education Committee Chair, Marlena Rose, at barberm@ecu.edu with the subject line "Jackson Scholarship". Due date is Friday, January 12, 2024.

Disbursement of Funds: Scholarship funds will be provided to the recipients prior to the conference as a one-time payment.
